My test script for the assign 1 preliminary broke, and I discovered that it was because I was still using scam version 2.2a, which I downloaded at the beginning of the semester, while the test script was written based on version 2.2d.

In the future, could there be some notice when a new version of scam is available, and in particular, which version of scam we should have tested against before submitting assignments?