So it says "Your function should be recursive and implement a recursive process".

Is it enough to define factorial recursively as an inner function and then use that to implement the \( \binom{n}{r} \) formula?

---

No, do not use the \( \binom{n}{r} \) formula. Bico should recur on itself and generate a recursive process.